ST. BLAISE BLESSING OF THROATS will be given this weekend after all the Masses. St. Blaise was the Bishop of Sebaste in Armenia during the fourth century. According to various accounts he was a physician before becoming a bishop. He was reputed to have miraculously cured a little boy who nearly died because of a fishbone in his throat. He is invoked on behalf of those afflicted with illnesses of the throat. As indicated in the Book of Blessings, the blessing of throats may be given by a priest, deacon, or lay minister.

PROJECT ANDREW DINNER will be at Christ the King Retreat Center, San Angelo, Texas, Friday, February 8, 2019. Doors open at 6:00 p.m., dinner from 6:30 p.m.-8:00 p.m. Project Andrew Dinners provide priests the opportunity to invite individuals who they think might have a priestly vocation or the qualities needed to be a good priest. It is a dinner with the bishop in a formal setting, with discussion and dialogue about the life of a priest and a priestly vocation. They provide the accompanying priests the chance to share their vocation stories as well as to hear the vocation story of the bishop. This also gives the bishop the opportunity to interact with those who are considering the priesthood and to encourage them to follow the Lord’s call. This event is for high school and college age men. Please contact the youth coordinator, Mrs. Penny Pope at the church office.

MORE ANNULMENT ADVOCATES NEEDED. If you would like to serve as an advocate approved by the Diocese of San Angelo who would assist people in obtaining an annulment of a prior marriage, please contact Father Fred by February 14. This program is also a refresher course for those who already serve as annulment advocates in our parish.

Dear Padre

February 3, 2019

My son and his wife attend a Christian church because they like the minister and the upbeat service. My son was raised Catholic and still claims he is Catholic, even though he doesn't go to a Catholic church. I feel frustrated by the whole affair!

Your frustration is certainly shared by many parents and grandparents today. They raised their children Catholic, even sent them to Catholic schools, but their adult children are less disciplined about their faith practices. Recent surveys on religion showed that 80 percent of Americans say they believe in God, and 75 percent consider spirituality important in their lives. But this doesn't mean they commit to religious practices. About 60 percent of Catholics questioned attend religious services only once or twice a month, or never. Many are interested in exploring different teachings and attending different churches. The loyalty to the Church and its disciplines that was evident in our own lives, or in our parents' and grandparents' lives, is often lacking in today's under-fifty-five crowd.

What can one do about this? The traditional method is to pray for your children while continuing to set an example through your own loyalty to the Catholic Church—including attendance at Sunday Mass and observance of other Church disciplines. It would be good to invite your son and his wife to attend church with you when they are visiting. As we age, we often become more religious and traditional. We may become more interested in our family's history, photos, and traditions. The religion of our childhood may begin to appear very attractive again. Be patient and continue to pray that your children will return to the Church of their roots.

SACRAMENT PREPARATION FOR CHILDREN AGE 7 TO 6TH GRADE: Parent preparation classes will be held during your child's religious education class each Sunday through February 17th. These classes support official Church teaching that requires parents to assume their important roles of primary educators of their children in regards to religious education. While the religious education program exists to provide supplemental preparation, children cannot be adequately prepared for reception of the Sacraments without parents playing the most important and vital role. Please email Bob Moore at bemoore@hsutx.edu with questions.
